Eternity Seekers

One writer has made the comment that "when the idea of eternity disappears, man becomes cruel" (Miegge, Visible and Invisible, p. x).

When the element of "eternity" is introduced into daily living, human beings realize that they are now living with ultimate accountability. What we say and do will have eternal consequences.

Let us state the opposite of Miegge's claim: "When the idea of eternity becomes real, man becomes more accepting." Cruelty is replaced by acceptance, love and forgiveness because of God's love.

We gather this morning as "eternity seekers" knowing that we are on a "forever-journey" in which we are held accountable, and will one day by God's grace be in His presence forever!

Let us seek together!

In Christian love, Curtis
