Welcome to Highland View Church of Christ!

A Three-fold Blessing of the Assembly

One Christian writer maintains that there are three blessings that come out of a commitment of being a regular part of the Sunday morning assembly: discipline, honesty, and joyful living.

- Discipline—A key component of the Christian life is the value of discipline. When we discipline ourselves to commit to be a part of the weekly assembly, that adds to our Christian commitment “muscle.”
- Honesty—In the assembly we become known by others and are known by God. This honesty of being only who we really are adds to the authentic experience of the assembly.
- Joyful Living—The inner life of joy is shared, celebrated and enlarged up with other Christians together in the Sunday morning assembly. Rejoicing together and being encouraged by one another weekly adds depth to our experience of the Christian life.

Are you enjoying the threefold blessing of the assembly? In Christian love, Curtis

PRAYER REQUESTS

DEBBIE WOODWARD had open heart surgery at MMC yesterday. It was successful, she has been moved to room 339. Phone calls are welcomed but at this time No Visitors. Pray for a good recovery.
LEN HART has been in the hospital since last week in Lexington, KY to treat several problems. Pray for it all to be resolved and for better health.
Pray for healing for CHARLESTINE THRIFT from a sinus infection and asthma. The doctor has ordered her to stay in. Pray for healing.
Remember GREG SWAFFORD, a Preschool teacher’s husband who had a malignant brain tumor removed. He will be doing aggressive oral chemo and radiation Monday through Friday and then go to Duke to see other possible treatment. Pray for complete healing. Call the office if you would like to have their address.
Pray that ALEX CROSSLIN (13 year old nephew of the Olsen’s) will not have to have a 3rd open heart surgery.
Pray for good decisions on regarding treatment for CARRIE MORTON, 33 year old friend of Jonathan Scott who has stage 4 colon cancer.
Remember LINDA KEIRN, April Connelly’s mother. Pray that the medication treatment for another several weeks will help to break up a gallstone so it can be removed.
Remember LOWELL KING, Missy King’s dad, who is on a ventilator and his lungs are not getting any better. He will be taken him off of it within a week to see if he can breathe on his own. Pray for him to breathe. If he were to pass, MISSY will have a very difficult time. Pray for her to be strong and know that God is with her to help her through the difficulties and pain.
Pray for Airel Olsen she has not been feeling well.
