

John Mark Hicks speaking May 3, 2015

Bible Class: "Why is 'Sacrament' is Not Necessarily a Bad Word: Creation, Christ, and Community"

Sermon: "The Transforming Presence of Christ"
Text: Matthew 18:19-20

Potluck Luncheon—12:00-1:00 p.m.

Question & Answer Interactive Session—1:00-2:00 p.m.

Biographical Information

"John Mark Hicks is Professor of Theology at Lipscomb University. He has taught in over 20 countries and throughout the United States. He has authored twelve books and published numerous articles in both popular and academic journals. He is married to Jennifer. Together they have five living children (as well as two deceased) and three grandchildren." He has taught for 32 years, and has published a book on the life and times of James A. Harding and David Lipscomb. He also has been gifted as a theological thinker who can engage Christians today to a deeper pursuit of Scripture and faith. The summer series is based on his newest book, "Enter the Water, Come to the Table."

Patrick Mead speaking June 3, 4, and 5

6:30-7:30 each evening

Theme: Share that story anytime!

Wednesday, June 3--"The Water"

Thursday, June 4--"The Table"

Friday, June 5--"The Gathering"

Biographical Information

Patrick is the senior minister of the Fourth Avenue Church of Christ in Franklin, TN, a southern suburb of Nashville. Fourth Avenue is one of the oldest churches of Christ, established in 1833 by Tolbert Fanning and Alexander Campbell. Today, it is a congregation of 700+ that serves a wide section of Williamson and Davidson Counties. Patrick has been married for 36 years to Kami Taylor Mead, an interior designer and his best friend. They have two grown children -- both active in ministry and mission work -- and three grandchildren. He holds two doctorates in neuroscience (London, UK) and has deep roots in Scotland and Ireland.

Congregational Theme for 2015

Enter the Water, Come to the Table Summer Lessons

- June 3-5 “Share that Story Anytime”—Patrick Mead
- June 10 “Israel—Baptized into Moses in the Sea”
- June 17 “Israel—Eating with God at Table”
- June 24 “Jesus—Baptized with Sinners in the Jordan”
- July 1 “Jesus—Eating with Sinners at Table”
- July 8 “Acts—Baptized in Water and Spirit”
- July 15 “Acts—Eating with Jesus at the Table”
- July 22 “Paul: Baptism as God’s Work and Our Discipleship”
- July 29 “Lord’s Supper as Communing with God & Each Other”
- August 5 “Baptism and New Creation”
- August 12 “The Lord’s Supper and New Creation”
- August 19 “The Practice of Baptism in the Church”
- August 26 “The Practice of the Lord’s Supper in the Church”

Summer Series 2015

“Enter the Water, Come to the Table”

—Revisioning Baptism, Lord’s Supper,
Fellowship, and the Assembly

