Biographical Information

Patrick is the senior minister of the Fourth Avenue Church of Christ in Franklin, TN, a southern suburb of Nashville. Fourth Avenue is one of the oldest churches of Christ, established in 1833 by Tolbert Fanning and Alexander Campbell. Today, it is a congregation of 700+ that serves a wide section of Williamson and Davidson Counties. Patrick has been married for 36 years to Kami Taylor Mead, an interior designer and his best friend. They have two grown children -- both active in ministry and mission work -- and three grandchildren. He holds two doctorates in neuroscience (London, UK) and has deep roots in Scotland and Ireland.
