

Our Anniversary in Numbers

Today, Kevin and I celebrated our 9 year wedding anniversary. So I thought I would give everyone some fun facts on us.

Date night photo

- 18...the number of years Kevin and I have known each other. We met late July 1997 at band camp.
- 12...the number of years Kevin and I have been a couple. We began dating late July 2003.
- 11...the number of profession titles Kevin and I have held between the two of us since getting married (this does not include person titles like spouse, mom, etc.).
- 10...the number of countries Kevin and I have visited together (U.S., Canada, Dominican Republic, Costa Rica, U.K., Belgium, Turkey, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Italy, and France)
- 9...the number of years Kevin and I have been married.
- 8...the record number of days Kevin has gone without shaving, which is why he now has a beard. Kevin forgot to pack his razor.
- 7...the number of addresses where we have lived over the years-6 of which have been in the last 4.
- 6...the number of wedding rings Kevin and I have owned over the years. I am on my original two/set and Kevin is on number 4. What can he say? Tungsten is not as durable as they claim!
- 5...the number of times we went on short term mission trips to the Dominican Republic (and once to Costa Rica but 6 was filled).
- 4...the number of years we have been full time missionaries with MAF.
- 3...the number of vacations Kevin and I have taken together or as a family (our honeymoon and two trips with our kids).
- 2...the number of children we have.
- 1...the number of nights we have spent away from our child(ren). Adah slept at Mimi's for Sol's birth, so that counts!
- 0...the number of birthdays our children have celebrated in the U.S.

And here's to many more years and numbers added to the list!
