

Weaving our Way through the Book of Acts with Encouragement

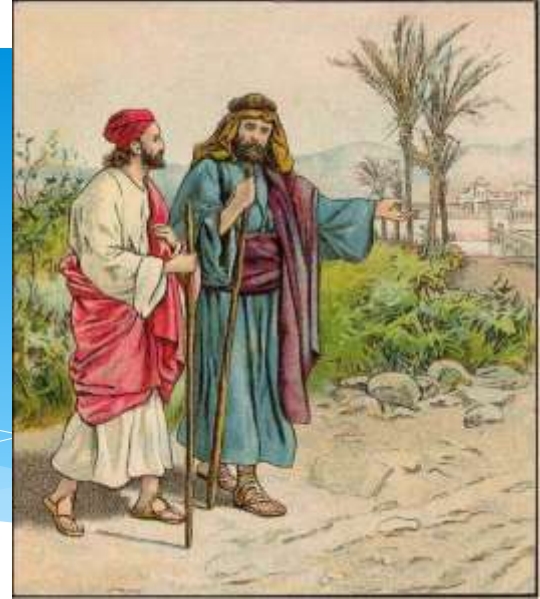

Acts 4:36

- * Thus Joseph, who was also called by the apostles Barnabas (which means son of encouragement), a Levite, a native of Cyprus,³⁷ sold a field that belonged to him and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Acts 13:15

* After the reading from the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent a message to them, saying, “Brothers, if you have any word of encouragement for the people, say it.”

Acts 15:31, 32

- * And when they had read it, they rejoiced because of its encouragement.
- * And Judas and Silas, who were themselves prophets, encouraged and strengthened the brothers with many words.

Encouragement

- * Let us, like Barnabas, give sacrificially for whatever is needed
- * Let us encourage one another because of God's faithful gift of Jesus
- * Let us rejoice and be strengthened
