SERMON NOTES

The Lord’s Prayer IS for Today!
(Matthew 6:9-13)

Four tools of instruction in our “prayer tool box!”
Without proper instruction...

- Prayer can be self-centered
- We may not be ready to pray
- We may forget the priorities of prayer
- We may forget to whom we are praying!

May we be instructed...pray then like this...

Welcome to Highland View
Church of Christ!

Welcome Today!

We are beginning today a series of lessons on the Lord's Prayer. As I was pondering on its significance the other day, here are some thoughts that came to me about prayer.

"We are a praying people. But how, when, where, and why we pray is as diverse as God's people are. This praying, though diverse in its practice, converges where we all are in agreement—we pray because we recognize our dependence upon God.

This dependence admits our vulnerability. Such vulnerability strips us naked before God. So, when we come before God's throne of grace in our time of need, we bring nothing of our own merit. Instead, with open hands and open hearts, we come seeking because we are so empty and impoverished.

I invite you into this journey of prayer. May God make known to each one of us how we can enrich our prayer life! In Christian love, Curtis
