May 6th, 2018

Welcome to Highland View Church of Christ!

Everyone's parents are different. Some people share that they never saw their father cry, growing up. Some, in turn, attempt to provide that same level of stoicism to their own children.

As we face hard times in our lives, be it the everyday pressures, death of a friend or family member, loss of a job, a move, or a divorce, we then find comfort in the laments of the Psalms.

We, then, often turn to see Jesus weep with Mary and the family at the death of his friend Lazarus. We've become comfortable (and comforted) by what we see as Jesus' humanity.

What about our Father? The Father? Was it, in fact, Jesus' humanity that welled up in his eyes or was it his divinity?
