We are sad that our long time sister in Christ, JOYCE TYE passed away Monday, February 4th. There was a graveside service February 7th at the Campbell Memorial Gardens in Jacksboro. Pray for comfort and peace for the family.

Remember all the families that are mourning the passing of a loved one.

ERIN DODD had an ablation surgery February 5th. Her iron levels were dangerously low. The surgery went well and she is home recovering. Pray for comfort and healing.

ALLISON PETTY is a friend of April Connelly in Montana. She has suffered a stroke at 35 leaving her left side paralyzed. Pray for a good recovery as she goes down a long road to get there.

JUDY WALLACE had knee replacement January 30th at MMC. It went very well. She is home now. Pray for healing and relief of pain.

CHARLESTINE THRIFT had eye surgery January 29th on her right eye and can see better. She will have surgery on her left eye on February 21st. Pray that it will be successful.

BESSIE TURPIN is not doing well and is not driving; therefore, she is unable to come to worship. Keep her in your prayers.

REMEMBER JOSEPH PALMER. He is going through a difficult time. Pray also that he finds employment.

GLENN ELLIS, Minister at Central Baptist, is fighting pancreatic cancer that has spread and is in-operable but he is doing treatments. Pray for strength, comfort and healing.

Welcome to Highland View Church of Christ!

We began this series by looking at being “born again” and what that meant. Last week we talked about God everywhere and, specifically, God with us—how no one is beyond the reach of our God.

Today we’re going to be called to “Move!”, sort of a “what do we look like, ’born again’, practically?” What does it look like to really KNOW God?

P.S. Don’t be like Dan.... 😊
